

COLUMBUS DAY.

Chicago Overflowing and Still They Come.

Every State in the Union and Many Foreign Countries Represented.

The World's Fair City Never So Beautiful as it Now Appears in Holiday Attire—The Auditorium Radiant With Countless Myriads of Lights.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The dedicatory ceremonies of the World's Columbian exposition were inaugurated Wednesday, beginning with the reception and entertainment of distinguished visitors by the various committees on their arrival in the city, and followed in the evening by the formal inaugural reception by the citizens of Chicago to the guests of honor.

A pleasant prelude was the "Columbus Day" celebration Wednesday afternoon by thousands of school children throughout the city.

LOTTO'S COLUMBUS.

For three days Chicago is to be given over to pageantry and pleasure, and the indications are that the attending ceremonies, formal and informal, official and social, will be witnessed by nearly half a million people from abroad. Elaborate arrangements have been made to give the ceremonies of dedication that official character which should attend an enterprise of such international and representative importance, and the World's fair city is attired in a costume of many colors, from every important edifice in Chicago, from every peak and pinnacle, from every balcony and window, are suspended the colors that have been invoked for the adornment of this occasion. The stars and stripes naturally predominate, but the colors of all nations mingle in producing the grand aggregate result.

Portraits of Columbus are seen everywhere, and for the first time since the national conventions the familiar features of political leaders are hauled down or obscured by the portraits of Columbus or Isabella, or George Washington. Every train brings hundreds of visitors to the World's fair city, and many of the most important participants in the official ceremonies are already on the grounds.

Among the prominent people already in the city are: Ex-President Hayes, Vice President Morton, the supreme justices of the United States, Gen. Schofield, Cardinal Gibbons and the papal legate, Archbishop Satoli, Govs. McKinley, of Ohio; Flower, of New York; Bulkeley, of Connecticut; Russell, of Massachusetts; Markham, of California; Muir, of Washington; Brown, of Rhode Island; Burleigh, of Maine; Routt, of Colorado; Elfer, Illinois; Reynolds, of Delaware; Knapp, of Alaska; Francis, of Missouri; Tattle, of New Hampshire; Holt, of North Carolina; Abbott, of New Jersey; Pattison, of Pennsylvania; Merriam, of Minnesota; Chase, of Indiana; Burke, of North Dakota; Boyd, of Nebraska.

Ex-Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, Adm. Belknap, Congressman Springer, Senator Cullom, Senator Brice, Geo. W. Childs, Col. Elliot F. Shephard, and various other well-known Americans are also already in the city. The following cabinet officers and their families arrived late Wednesday: Secretary J. W. Foster and wife, Secretary Charles Foster, wife and daughter, Secretary S. R. Elkins and Miss Elkins, Secretary John Wamamaker and family, Secretary Noble and Mrs. Noble, Attorney-General and Mrs. Miller, Secretary Jeremiah Rusk and Mrs. Rusk, Secretary Tracy, Mrs. Wilmerding and Miss Alice Wilmerding, Assistant Secretary Solie and Mrs. Solie.

Cardinal Gibbons and party, who arrived in the city Wednesday from Baltimore, were met at the South Chicago depot by a number of well-known gentlemen representing the World's fair and the Columbus club. Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Satoli and Mr. O'Connell were driven directly to Archbishop Fehnan's home, on the lake shore, and will be his guests during the stay in Chicago. Bishop Kane and Archbishop Ireland went to the Grand Pacific hotel, and Bishop Keane went with his friend Father Hildan, of St. Elizabeth's church.

Another distinguished party of ecclesiastics was that of Archbishop Corrigan and suite who arrived over the Michigan Central from New York. They will be entertained by Mr. Redmond Prindiville.

The auditorium, the greatest assembly hall of the continent, was ablaze Wednesday night with myriads of electric lights. Lovely women were there, women whose presence would create a furore at a drawing-room in Buckingham palace, presided over by the venerable Victoria Regina; women in toilets not put to shame by the greatest creations of Worth.

The assemblage was essentially a private affair. So far as the official programme of dedication week was concerned, it had no recognition beyond the formal endorsement of the committee on ceremonies of the World's Columbian exposition, an endorsement that carried with it neither financial liability nor responsibility.

SHE BROKE THE SPELL.

He sat within the parlor bright,
When day had closed its eye:
The golden moments in their flight
Unheeded passed us by.

It was an hour of honeyed bliss,
To which there was no sting,
And in a whirl of happiness
I asked the maid to sing.

I thought to hear a carol gay
That hunters sing at morn,
Or true love's tender roundelay,
From ardent passion born.

She fixed her cuffs, she smoothed a bang
And then began to play:
I held my breath—the maiden sang,
"Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-ay!"

TO-NIGHT at Washington Opera-house our theater-goers are to have "Ole Olson" the latest success in the farce comedy line. It is an absolute novelty; nothing like it was ever produced before. The great success with which it has met has been won fairly on its merits. The Swedish character has something in it wonderfully interesting to the American people, and presents quite as many possibilities, if not more, than the conventional German, Irish or Yankee. The company is composed of well known artists, who introduce, incidental to the play, a number of topical songs and clever character dances. Prices 25, 50 and 75 cents.

DOUBTLESS no lady star who has faced the footlights in years has received so much deserved praise as Miss Sadie Scanlan, who is to appear in her new picturesque Irish drama, "Nora Macchree," to-morrow night. Those who have seen her act praise her talent, and those who have been fortunate enough to meet the lady personally cannot say too much for her. In personal appearance Miss Scanlan charms one at once. A graceful, petite figure, an expressive face lighted by a brilliant smile, a pair of roguish eyes, a wealth of natural blonde hair, a musical and well modulated voice, are nature's gifts to the young lady.

COLUMBUS DAY.

A Parade of the School Children Added to the Features of the Celebration.

In addition to the exercises at the Opera-house to-morrow morning, it has been decided to have a parade in which the pupils of all the public schools in the city will participate. Haucke's Band has been engaged and the parade will be one of the most remarkable events ever seen on our streets. There are over 700 children in the schools and every one of them can be depended upon to be in line.

The pupils will assemble on Fourth street in front of the High School Building. They will be informed at their respective schools by the teachers at what hour they will be wanted.

The procession will be formed in the following order: High School and Intermediate School, then Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4. The whole to be headed by the band. They will march down the East side of Market to Third; thence to the West side of Market; thence down same to North side of Second; thence down Second to Opera-house.

No one will be allowed in the Opera-house until all of the teachers and pupils have been seated. The exercises will commence at 10:30 o'clock instead of 10 as heretofore announced.

There will also be a school flag raising in honor of Columbus at District No. 2 in the morning at 8:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

The following is the program for the Opera-house exercises:

A Cholera Scare.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things made. For sale by Power & Reynolds, Druggists.

He's All Right.

Flemingsburg Gazette.—John P. McCartney returned last Thursday afternoon from a campaigning trip, on which he took in the cities of Carlisle, Vanceburg and Tollesboro, large crowds greeting him at each place, and the newspapers all, both Democratic and Republican, speak highly of his efforts. Republicans of the Ninth District to a man will support him, and many Democrats will vote for him on account of superior qualifications and high personal character.

The Verdict Unanimous.

It pleases the lawyer and his client, too, to have the verdict of the jury unanimous. A great jury composed of the American public has rendered an unanimous verdict on Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure as a "medicine," agreeing that its promises of a speedy cure for coughs, colds and bronchial troubles are always carried out to the letter. This pleasant verdict has not been obtained without great pains taken to make it the best cough cure on the market. Try a bottle when you have a cough or cold and you will belong to the "unanimous" ever after. For sale by Power & Reynolds, Druggists.

Celebration at St. Mary's School.

The Columbus Centennial will be fittingly celebrated by the pupils of St. Mary's School, Washington. A novel arrangement by which the anniversaries of the battles and victories of our Nation are commemorated is practiced at the daily flag raising, on which occasion one of the pupils narrates in a brief manner the event, the Commanders who took part in the strife and the number of American heroes who fell on that day.

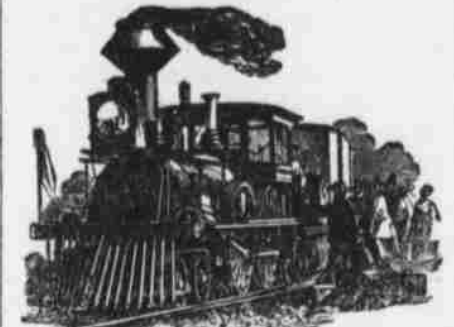

The following is the program for Friday: Flag Raising, Salute by the School, Address, Oath of Patriotism, Administered by 'Squire Belfry, Refreshments.

In the absence of Rev. Father Bealer, who will attend the Columbus banquet and reception at the Grand, the School Trustees will conduct the ceremonies.

Cholera.

When properly treated as soon as the first symptoms appear, cholera can nearly always be cured. The patient should go immediately to bed and remain as quiet as possible. Send for a physician, but while awaiting his arrival take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in double doses after each operation of the bowels more than natural. If there is severe pain or cramps, take it in double doses every fifteen minutes until relieved. This Remedy has been used with great success in seven epidemics of dysentery that were almost as severe and dangerous as cholera, and if used as directed a cure is almost certain. Every family should have a 50 cent bottle at hand ready for instant use. After the disease is under control castor oil must be taken to cleanse the system. No other physic or substitute will do in place of castor oil. For sale by Power & Reynolds, Druggists.

Effects of "Fix."

General Horace Porter is too good a soldier not to enjoy a good time. One of his chief amusements used to be the initiating of the uninitiated. In his large circle of country cousins and country acquaintances he found abundant opportunity to gratify this taste. They were forever lighting down on him and with all the zest of their rustic natures wanting to be shown the elephant. The task was a labor of love to the General. One day a lanky acquaintance from Kentucky appeared. The General proceeded to make it merry for his lengthy friend. He initiated him into the joys of champagne, and the wine had its usual effect. The countryman's beard got badly tangled before the evening fell. The General suggested a theater visit. He of the whiskers readily assented. He had never seen the inside of a theater in his life, and he wanted to go to one where there were fights. He had heard of fights, at any rate, and the wonders thereof.

"Well," said the General, "let's go down to Niblo's and see 'Excelsior.'" (It was running there at that time.) "There are plenty of fights in that, but it's a pantomime, you know."

"I don't keer a darn what it is, if so there be some gals with fights on 'em into it."

So they went to the theater and secured seats about in the middle of the orchestra. The grand spectacle had reached nearly to the end of the first act in silence save for the applause of the audience and the moaning of the orchestra.

The gentleman from Kentucky was beginning to look more and more bewildered as the show progressed. An expression of amazement, of doubt and then of despair, came over his gaunt features as the artists portrayed in telling action the story of civilization. Then he rose from his seat and started for the aisle. The General pulled him back.

"Here, where are you going?" he asked, in a whisper.

"I'm goin' home."

"What for?"

"Bed's my place. I'm drunker than I thought I was. That champagne liquor was too much for me. Do you know I hain't heard a durned word those folks hev said? I reckon I'm pretty drunk."

THOMAS F. GILROY has been nominated for Mayor of New York by Tammany.

THE BEAR.

Report of Capt. Healy to the Secretary of the Treasury.

His Ship Evidently Cut Out for Good Work Along Alaska.

The Season Has Been Particularly Open—The Schooner May D. Hume Made an Extraordinary Catch of Whale—The Bear Will Do Guard Duty.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Capt. M. A. Healy, U. S. R. M., in a long report to the secretary of the treasury, dated Unalaska, September 25, of the cruise of the steamer Bear in north Arctic waters, says that the station promulgated the order projected at the department and succeeded in introducing reindeer in Unalaska.

In giving a detailed account of the cruise of the revenue steamer Bear, Capt. Healy says that the annual visit of the vessel to Northern Alaska has now become the time for the adjustment of the differences of all kinds, the starting of new enterprises and the correction of various abuses.

Capt. Healy says this season has been particularly open, and nearly the entire whaling fleet and gone east of Point Barrow when the Bear sailed south. The schooner May D. Hume made the extraordinary catch of thirty-nine whales during the spring. The establishment of the refuge station at Point Barrow, with its constant supply of provisions, has encouraged whalers to go farther north and into more profitable places in pursuit of their trade, with the knowledge that in case of accident they will not be left to the mercy of an arctic winter without food or shelter. Capt. Healy says that his efforts to prevent the introduction of spirituous liquors were unusually successful despite the great extent of territory to be patrolled, and is of the opinion that he has driven the liquor traffic out of the country. The Bear will assist the United States steamer Adams in guarding the seal islands until December 1.

TROUBLE NOT SETTLED.

That Telegrapher's Joke May Turn Out Most Serious.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 20.—It is reported here that the Gulf, Colorado & San Francisco is employing operators to take the place of the strikers. It is apprehended that this action by the railway company means a suspension of negotiations with the strikers and that it will result in a strike on the whole system, which this time will be no joke.

GALVESTON, Tex., Oct. 20.—The following telegram was received at midnight from Cleburne: A committee of O. R. T. men called a meeting of all railway employees at Cleburne to explain the strike of operators on the Gulf road and secure their aid and support. The committee was advised that the strike was not justified; that they should return to work and have Chief Ramsey come to Galveston and settle matters with President Robinson and General Manager Wheeler, as previously agreed, and that they could not give them aid or support.

Celebration Opened at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 20.—Wednesday afternoon Garfield place and intersecting thoroughfares for blocks about it were crowded with a mass of people to witness the inauguration of the Columbus day celebration by a parade of the children of the public schools. There were fully 15,000 in line, variously and tastefully costumed. On Thursday the parade of the Catholic school children takes place, and the musical program at Music hall on Thursday night, while on Friday the civic parade and pageantry and concert at Music hall will culminate the festivities.

Masonic Home Corner-Store Laid.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 20.—The grand lodge of Ohio, Free and Accepted Masons, met Wednesday morning in eighty-third annual session, in the city hall, Hon. Levi C. Goodale, of Cincinnati, grand master, presiding. At 3 p. m. the corner-stone exercises began. The block was laid by Grand Master Goodale, after the regular ritualistic exercises. Hon. Barton Smith, of Toledo, then delivered an oration. Fully 15,000 strangers were present. The building, which cost $75,000, will be completed by this time next year, and hereafter all state conventions of masons will be held here.

Clerks Going Home to Vote.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The department clerks are preparing to go home to vote. Already several hundred voters have taken advantage of the low rates agreed upon by the railroads, and the exodus will steadily continue until a few days before election, by which time it is expected that fully 5,000 men will have left for their homes.

As the London Chronicle Sees It.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The Chronicle calls the decision of the United States supreme court in the Michigan electoral case the most important and far-reaching promulgated in years, and says that the decision will probably eventuate in the downfall of the electoral college and the election of the president by the direct vote of the people.

Those Mines Are Still With Us.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 20.—The truth of a recent announcement that the custom house at Fronteras had been moved and that mines formerly in the United States are located within Mexico by the change of boundary, is denied at the treasury department here, and the state department declares such an occurrence impossible.
